United States District Court Judge

Re: Commodity Futures Trading Commission
vs. Traders Global Group Inc., a New Jersey corporation, d/b/a “My Forex Funds”; Traders Global Group Inc., a Canadian business; and Murtuza Kazmi
Civ. Action No. 3:23-cv-11808-ZNQ-TJB

Dear Judge Quraishi:

As the Court is aware, I am the Temporary Receiver in the captioned matter.

Kindly accept this letter in response to the Court’s Text Order in connection with the Temporary Receiver’s proposed order regarding financial accounts (the “Proposed Order”) (Doc. No. 81).

Civ. Rule 66.1(c) Receiverships provides, in part, as follows:

Upon appointment of a custodial or statutory receiver or similar officer, the Court shall designate one or more banking institutions as depositories in which shall be deposited, until the further order of the Court, all funds obtained by the receiver. A certified copy of the order shall be filed with each depository. . . .

Thus, the Proposed Order was submitted to comply with Civ. R. 66.1(c). The Proposed Order designates ConnectOne and Ascendia as depository institutions.

Ascendia is a local bank in West Orange, New Jersey. For convenience, I often use Ascendia for my other fiduciary accounts. I will never allow more than the $250,000 FDIC insured limit to be deposited into Ascendia. ConnectOne utilities “ICS”—Intrafi Cash Service—which provides for protection of amounts over $250,000 through affiliations with other depositories.

Respectfully submitted,
